David Fitch, Amos Fitch, & Harvey Fitch with the anvil and bear trap that belonged to Nathaniel, their father.

David, Amos, and Harvey are the sons of Nathaniel Fitch who pioneered in Allen and DeKalb Counties in the 1840 era. They are just three of the 15 children that Nathaniel and Sarah had.

Nathaniel's profession was that of blacksmith, and he made the locks for the Wabash and Erie canal. This may have been before they were married as he was called of Carroll County in one land contract. We only know of his being here in DeKalb County first and then buying land across the county line in Allen County. Then he continued the blacksmith trade and was called the first blacksmith in Perry Township.

It is possible that this is the anvil that is owned by Jake Kell, a great grandson. He owns one that he said belonged to his grandfather, but not sure which one. His grandfather would have been Mathias and no doubt he would have had the anvil, even though it is shown here in this photo with 3 of the younger brothers. We saw it and took pictures of it years ago. Will have to compare the photos.

The bear trap may be the one that is in the Historical Museum of Allen County. Some of the children donated items to the Museum and in 1972 the boys and I were there and took photos of the things that were found in the museum that had belonged to the Fitch family. Also there is a list written, and you will find a bear trap on that list.

Amos died in 1935, Harvey in 1948, and David in 1950. So this photo would have been taken before 1935. Imagine what we could have learned from them had we known to ask questions of them while they were still alive.

GRANDMA FITCH DIES

The venerable mother of Mrs. Allan Hartzell passed away at Huntertown, Wednesday morning. At the last Fitch reunion held two months ago it was seen that Grandma Fitch could not long survive. Past the age of 90, she had reached the time when any minute might bring the summons. She had always been strong, but age overcomes strength. While sitting in bed receiving attention from members of the family, the aged head bent forward, a sigh escaped the lips, and the spirit was gone.

Mrs. Fitch was born in 1818 in Miami County, Ohio. In 1840 she was married to Nathaniel Fitch and they settled in Perry township where she has resided ever since. The husband died in 1877. Fourteen children were born to them, twelve of whom still live. She was a member of the M. E. church at Huntertown and the funeral will be held from that place Friday. Rev. E. A. Bunner will conduct the service. She was a good woman universally loved. Her passing away was in compliance with the law of Nature but the influence of the christian spirit will live eternally.

The surviving children are: Mathias Fitch, of Huntertown, Mrs. J. F. Beers, of Holly, Col., Charles and Allan Fitch, of St. Paul, Amos Fitch, of New Era, Ind., Mrs. Christian Fair of Alden, Kan., Mrs. A. M. Hartzell of New Haven, Harvey Fitch, of Huntertown, Dr. David Fitch, of Auburn, Mrs. Dr. M. A. Mason, Mrs. J. D. Gloyd and Mrs. Sarah E. Stratton, of Fort Wayne. There are forty-six grand children and twenty-seven great-grandchildren.

AT ADVANCED AGE

Death at Huntertown of Mrs.
Sarah E. Fitch

The Mother of Dr. D. N. Fitch, of This City

Mrs. Sarah E. Fitch, the mother of Dr. D. N. Fitch, of this city, died Wednesday morning at 6 o'clock at her home in Perry township, Allen county near Huntertown aged 90 years, of the infirmities due to her advanced age.

Mrs. Fitch was a lady of many noble traits of character and was highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends. She was a Christian lady, a devoted wife and a loving mother.

The uneral will occur Friday forenoon at 9:30 from the residence, the services being at 10 o'clock at the Cemetery church in Huntertown.

The following are the children: Nancy and John died in infancy; Perry the elder died eight years ago; Josiah M. Fitch of Huntertown, Mrs. J. F. Beers of Colorado; Charles and Al'en F. both of South St. Paul Minnesota; Amos F. DeKalb county, Indiana; Mrs. Frances Fair of Alden Kansas, Fipelia Gloyd of Fort Wayne; Harvey F., Huntertown; Mrs. Sarah E. Stratton of Fort Wayne; Mrs. Ida S. Mason of Fort Wayne, Mrs. Emma Hartzell of New Haven and D. D. N. Fitch of Auburn.

The pllowing sketch of her life has been furnished the Courier by relatives.

Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Fitch, widow of Nathaniel Fitch, and pioneer of Allen county, Ind., was born in Miami county, Bethel township, Ohio, May 29, 1819, the daughter of George and Sarah Statler Delong. She came to DeKalb county, Ind., to the home of her sister, Mrs. Abram Fair, where she met Mr. Fitch, to whom she was married June 4, 1840. They located in Perry township, Allen county, Ind., which place became her permanent home the remainder of her life.

PIONEER FAMILY MEMBER IS DEAD

Mrs. Nancy Elizabeth Fitch,
Aged 81, Succumbs at Home in DeKalb County.

FUNERAL RITES TUESDAY

Mrs. Nancy Elizabeth Fitch, aged 81, member of a pioneer family of Allen County, died Sunday noon at 12:15 o'clock at her home in Butler Township, DeKalb County, after a brief illness. Mrs. Fitch was the daughter of William Todd Hunter, who was one of the first settlers at the site now known as Huntertown. The town was named for Mr. Hunter who came to this country from England. Mrs. Fitch was the last member of this family.

Mrs. Fitch was born at Huntertown, January 22, 1849. She was married to Amos Fitch November 27, 1878 and the couple lived in DeKalb County since their marriage, over fifty years ago.

Surviving are the husband; a son, Rolland H. Fitch, of this city; three daughters, Miss Gladys Fitch, at home, and Mrs. Harry West and Mrs. Arthur Houser, both of Garrett, and three grandchildren, Richard, Elaine and Joan Houser, of Garrett.

Funeral services will be held at the home on the Allen-DeKalb County line Tuesday at 2 o'clock, daylight saving time, with the Rev. Arthur J. Folsom, of this city, officiating, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Fenstermacher, of Huntertown. Interment will be made in Cedar Chapel Cemetery.

She was left a widow by the death of her husband January 1, 1877. A large number of immediate relatives survive her. She was the mother of fifteen children, twelve of whom are living, forty-six grandchildren and twenty-eight great grandchildren.

Mrs. Fitch was christened in infancy in the German Reformed church. She united with the Methodist Episcopal church of which she was a consistent member up to the time of her death.

She was of a religious, charitable nature, and her life was full of good deeds, for she gave with an open hand to the poor and needy.

The call of the sick and suffering was answered by her presence as often as both physician and nurse. Her influence and help has been far reaching through her long life and it can be said of her "She did what she could" and when in her 90th year the summons came she was ready to go.

Roscoe Conkling Fitch Changes History, Blasts Fulton Steamboat Myth

Author and Journalist in Book Reveals Ancestor Was Real Inventor

Wars and other great events may divert the path of history, but seldom change it. To Roscoe Conkling Fitch, former Detroit newspaper man, goes the credit of having accomplished almost alone what wars and catastrophes have failed to do.

Through his efforts the books on American history are being changed to show that the steamboat was invented by Lieut. John Fitch in 1785 and not by Robert Fulton 22 years later. This change in the textbooks is accomplished almost 150 years after the historic event took place.

Fitch, who is 27 years old, is a collateral descendant of the original world pioneer of steam navigation. He has written and published three volumes which contain documentary proof of the invention of the steamboat in 1785 by his ancestor and point out where Fulton was wrongly given the credit and Lieutenant Fitch cheated of his just fame.

"PUBLICITY HOAX"

Roscoe Conkling Fitch calls it "The greatest publicity hoax in American history."

By furnishing documentary proof of Fitch's 22-year priority over Fulton to leading historians and publishers of history textbooks, appointing committees of Fitch descendants in every state of the union to examine and report every omission of Fitch's name from school textbooks, a general revision of all history textbooks to give Lieutenant Fitch the glory for his achievement, has been brought about.

Roscoe Conkling Fitch, who received his training as a writer on the editorial staff of The Detroit Times, in 1928 formed the Fitch Family Association of America and since has financed the publication of a two-volume "History of the Fitch Family" and the biography of Lieutenant Fitch.

CHANGE TEXT BOOKS

Prof. Charles A. Beard, the noted authority and author of "The Rise of American Civilization" and other history textbooks, millions of copies of which are in use in schools and colleges throughout America, wrote Roscoe Fitch:

"You are quite right in your contention that Robert Fulton was not the 'inventor' of the steamboat. As a matter of fact, we made a slip in calling him the inventor in the old edition of our book to which you refer, for on page 296 of the same edition we mention Lieutenant Fitch in that connection. Moreover, on page 219 of the new revision we deal as fully as space will allow with the great achievement of Fitch. In this revision, however, we unfortunately have let the word 'inventor' creep in where Fulton is mentioned, but we shall change this term to 'promoter,' which is doubtless the proper characterization."

Roscoe Conkling Fitch discloses that Lieutenant Fitch carried passengers and freight on the Delaware River in 1789-90 between Philadelphia and Trenton, N. J., at a speed of eight miles an hour, almost twice as fast as Fulton's Clermont on the Hudson in 1807.

DIED PENNILESS

"Fitch died in 1798, penniless and broken-hearted," said Roscoe Fitch. "People thought his steamboat was the invention of the devil and threw rocks at the smokestack. I have a copy of an affidavit in the Library of Congress proving that, after Fitch's death, Fulton borrowed Fitch's plans and specifications and had them in his possession several months. Dr. William Thornton, first superintendent of the United States patent office, wrote that 'Fulton's steamboat was, in substance, the invention of Lieutenant Fitch'."

Louis C. Dillman, president and editor of the American Book Company, wrote:

"We are only too glad to correct any errors that may crop up from time to time, and are correcting all of the histories on our list so far as the treatment of Lieut. John Fitch is concerned."

PUBLISHERS ACT

A. H. Nelson, vice president of Macmillan Company, in charge of the educational publishing department, wrote:

"Professor Beard has written asking us to correct in the next printing the statements that seem to be in error concerning Lieutenant Fitch and Fulton. I am directing our editorial department to correct this matter, not only in the Beard text, but in any other school textbooks which we publish."

"Proper changes will be made in future editions of our histories," wrote J. L. Gragg, president of the Southern Publishing Company.

Prof. James A. Woodburn of the University of Michigan, co-author of the Woodburn and Moran "Elementary American History and Government," wrote:

"I am sending you a proof of the changes I am making on John Fitch and the steamboat and am asking the publishers, if they can spare the space, for a cut of Fitch's 'trial trip' on the Delaware, July 27, 1786."

Roscoe Conkling Fitch has been delivering several addresses on Lieut. John Fitch at father and son banquets, and also spoke over The Detroit Times Best Story radio broadcast.

Roscoe Conkling Fitch was born in Ludington, Mich., March 11, 1904, the son of former Judge Virgil A. Fitch, and his great grandfather was a Michigan territorial judge.

He is named after Senator Roscoe Conkling of New York, renowned statesman and orator, once known as the handsomest and best dressed member of the United States Senate and as "the President maker."

Roscoe Conkling Fitch was page in the State House of Representatives in 1919 for Speaker Tom Read, later lieutenant governor, and organized the "Third House," composed of pages and when William Howard Taft visited Lansing, introduced him and Governor Albert E. Sleeper to the members of the unofficial legislative body.

He was educated at Northwestern University and the Detroit College of Law. Was vice-president of the freshman class at Northwestern and reporter on the school paper.

Always wears a flower in his buttonhole, generally a carnation, and he and Councilman Phil Callahan are inseparable pals.

Has a fast walk and an ambition to become a United States senator.

Beginning Jan. 1, 1931, Roscoe Conkling Fitch, Wayne County Republican committeeman, became assistant manager of the Detroit branch of the Secretary of State's office, 3136 Cass avenue. His appointment was announced following a conference here by Frank D. Fitzgerald, secretary of state; former State Senator Orville E. Atwood, chief of the motor vehicle division in charge of the 117 branch offices in Michigan, and Joseph J. Burman, manager of the Detroit branch.

It is the largest branch office in the state, collecting more than $10,000,000 in a year and often, during rush months, as high as $360,000 a day.

It is known that Fitch was strongly recommended for the appointment by Councilman Dr. Philip A. Callahan, who had control of the Wayne County delegation to the state Republican convention in Grand Rapids last fall, as a candidate for Secretary of State, but withdrew, thus making Mr. Fitzgerald's nomination unanimous. Fitch, a close friend of Dr. Callahan, has been his chief lieutenant and floor leader of the Callahan bloc of 250 delegates in the last two county and state conventions.
